THE BOOK OF

ACTS

Read Acts. Don't be afraid to speed read. Your goal is to get the general flow of the book.

Jot down recurring themes, and summarize each chapter.

If you could divide Acts into several main sections, how would you do it?

Where can you find major shifts in the book?

Is there a general direction/movement/trend that you can discern?

What type of literature is Acts?

Where does the narrative of Acts pick up?

Where does it leave off?

Generally, what is the book of Acts about?
